Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. It was a full and lively market yesterday.

Shooting matches for turkeys are all the go at Cleveland now a days.

Penning up and fattening the Christmas turkey is now in order.

When the butter and egg crops fall, if ever, good night to East Tennessee, says the Athens Post.

Brother Tipton, of the Cleveland Herald, warns all tramps to steer clear of his shop, for never a lick of work can they get there.

A revival meeting is in progress at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Cleveland, united in by other denominations in the place.

The Cleveland Banner reports the sale of a few lots of hogs in that market at 3 cents net, and holders are perfectly willing to sell at 4.

The Jonesboro Journal learns of the death of John Scott, an influential citizen of Carter county, and proprietor of the Watauga woolen mills.

A car loaded with hogs, turkeys and chickens was brought in off the K. and O. road yesterday to be shipped South, for the Christmas holidays.

Josh Billings casually inquires: "How ken you expect to find two people in this world who are alike, when you kant even find one who is alike half the time?"

We are requested to say that there will be a meeting of citizens of the 5th ward, at the court house, at 7:30 o'clock Monday night next to select two candidates for Aldermen.

A judgement was rendered in favor of J. C. Allen against the city of Nashville last Wednesday for $499.75, damages alleged to have been sustained by falling through a plank sidewalk.

We regret to learn that Mr. John Knox, an old and respected citizen of this county, is lying at the point of death, not expected to live till morning. Dr. Laddow is waiting on him.

Mrs. Rebecca Powers and B. L. Powers, doing a clothing business in Nashville, under the firm name of S. Powers & Son, failed last Wednesday for $36,225.22, and made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors.

The Knoxville Marble Company continue the shipments almost daily of their popular marble to different points in the United States. Two car loads of fine large blocks were loaded and shipped last night East.

The funeral of Dr. M. L. Rogers was largely attended at his late residence yesterday evening. Rev. Dr. Jas. Park conducted the services, and the remains were conveyed to Gray Cemetery for interment, followed by a large concourse of mourning friends.

The trial of F. C. Miles and wife, of Bristol, for the murder of Mrs. Leonard, some months since, has been in progress at Blountville during the past week, as we learn from the Bristol Courier. Hon. R. R. Butler, of Johnson county, was principal counsel for the prisoners.

A note to the Bristol Courier from Shady, Johnson county, dated the 1st, says that Messrs. D. H. and J. B. F. Blevins killed a large bear, which weighed 200 pounds, a few days previous. They chased his bearship two days before he succumbed to the effects of their death dealing bullets.

Some gal has been sending Bill Tipton, of the Cleveland Herald, bouquets of pigs' feet and pepper sauce. Sensible gal, that. Wonder if there are not some of the same kind about Sweetwater. Joe Bean is beginning to need a bouquet again, we imagine, for he hasn't acknowledged the receipt of one lately.

Says the Cleveland Herald: "A gentleman by the name of Llewellyn from Knoxville is shortly to open a hardware and queensware store in this city, in the house formerly occupied by A. D. Strugg's drug store, on the east side of public square." It is our friend and fellow-townsmen Morgan Llewellyn, we presume.

Sent to the Penitentiary. Hiram Reuben, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Dandridge this week, for three years, for killing Vineyard Thomas, of Jefferson county. The killing took place about a year ago, and the particulars were given in the CHRONICLE at the time.

Knoxville Workmen to Virginia. The house of Hawkins, Butt, DePue & Co., of this city, have been awarded the contract for putting a tin roof on a new bank building at Abingdon, Va. Mr. Chas. W. DePue, of the firm, is now there to superintend the job, and Mr. Tom Seay, one of their best workmen, went up Thursday night with tools, etc., to go to work.

Another Origin for "That Belled Buzzard." HARRISON, TENN., Dec. 5, '78. MR. EDITOR: I see in your paper of the 27th Nov. an account of a belled buzzard being seen about Brownsville and Knoxville, Tennessee. A boy by the name of Ramsey caught a buzzard near this place about the first of last August in a steel trap and put a bell on it and turned it loose. This may be the same buzzard. Who can tell? R. H. GUTHRIE.

Now is the Time to Subscribe to Frank Leslie's SUNDAY MAGAZINE.

The January number brilliantly opens the fifth semi-annual volume of this most excellent magazine. As it appears in the "Holiday Season," it has the somewhat distinctive character of a "Christmas Number," and the opening paper, "Christmas Carols," (prattily illustrated, by Rev. W. H. Withrow, is especially interesting. "Lottie," by A. H. Mann, is a very delightful story of Christmas Eve. A row of serial stories is commenced, entitled, "David Fleming's Forgiveness," which will, it is stated, run through several months. It is by the author of "Christie Redfern's Troubles," and the opening gives promise of thrilling interest in the forthcoming chapters. The pleasant story, "In Mischievous Again," is continued. The pages abound with good things, which we can only refer to in general terms. There are short stories of great interest; sketches of famous persons; essays instructive and entertaining; poems, history, science, etc., an admirable sermon by the Editor, Dr. Charles F. Deems, etc., etc. There is no publication, either in the old, or this country, more deserving of public favor. Present your families with a subscription for 1879. The annual subscription is only $3 postpaid. Each number contains 128 quarto pages and over 100 beautiful illustrations. Address: Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Ho for the China House to day, if you want bargains in holiday goods. It is the place to go to.

The finest selection of Juvenile Gift Books ever brought to Knoxville, at Ogdens Brothers.

The Present Superiority Of the age over the past is largely determined by the excellence and cheapness of articles of daily use. Among these must be preferred such a household boon as Dooley's Yeast Powder, which is the ruling favorite with the public. The cans are always full weight, and the powder itself pure, strong and perfect in its adaptations to use.

Personal. Rev. F. E. Sturges and wife, Knoxville, were registered at the Maxwell House, Nashville, Wednesday.

Capt. Ross Smith, of Jonesboro', was in the city yesterday.

Mr. E. E. McMillan, of the shoe and hat house of McMillan & Atkins, returned yesterday morning from purchasing a new stock of goods East.

Knoxville Marble. We clip the following from the Ypsilanti (Mich.) Commercial: Messrs. Batchelder & Co. have just sold a handsome monument of Knoxville, Tenn., marble, the first ever brought to this city. The stone somewhat resembles polished sandstone, and is beautifully lined. It is much harder than ordinary marble, and since it contains no vegetable matter, it never grows moss. Messrs. Batchelder & Co. are working up a large out-of-town trade, and are constantly filling orders in Birmingham, Troy, Rochester, Utica, Rensselaer, and Detroit.

Almost a Fire. The Hickman House, at Dandridge, had a narrow escape from burning Thursday. A spark fell on the roof and ignited. But for the timely interposition of the landlord, Mr. Calvin, aided by others with buckets of water, the result would have been disastrous.

Everybody can afford to have a Cloak at such prices, as offered by the NEW ORLEANS STORE.

A Man of a Thousand. When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. James was experimenting with Indian Hemp, he accidentally cured his only child of Consumption, and now gives this Recipe free for two stamps to pay expenses.
